

Employee Handbook and Code of Conduct

1. Welcome and Company Culture

Welcome to the team! Our company values transparency, innovation, mutual respect, and ethical conduct in all business dealings.

We are committed to maintaining a diverse, inclusive, and harassment-free workplace. Any forms of discrimination or harassment are met with zero tolerance and result in immediate disciplinary action up to termination.

2. Working Hours and Time Tracking

The standard working week consists of 40 hours for full-time personnel, typically Monday through Friday. Flexible scheduling around core collaboration hours may be arranged with manager agreement.

Employee Handbook and Code of Conduct (Continued)

3. Employee Health and Retirement Benefits

Full-time employees are eligible for comprehensive medical, dental, and vision insurance coverage starting on the first day of the calendar month following their date of hire.

The company offers a 401(k) retirement plan with an immediate employer match of 100% on employee contributions up to 4% of base salary. Employees become eligible to enroll in the 401(k) program after 90 days of continuous employment.

4. Professional Development Stipend

Each full-time team member receives an annual professional learning budget of $1,200 for courses, conferences, certifications, and technical books.

Employee Handbook and Code of Conduct (Continued)

5. Performance Evaluations and Compensation Reviews

Formal performance reviews take place twice per calendar year: mid-year in June and end-of-year in December.

Annual merit-based compensation adjustments and promotional cycles take effect on February 1st of each calendar year following review completion.

6. Grievance and Conflict Escalation

Employees encountering workplace conflicts or ethical concerns should first approach their direct manager. If unresolved or inappropriate, matters should be escalated directly to People Operations or submitted anonymously via the Ethics Hotline.